this is the first book of its kind in the commonwealth caribbean on criminal procedure furthermore it is written by someone who has over twenty years experience in the field as a prosecutor for over a dozen years as a magistrate as a criminologist a criminal justice consultant and finally as a law school lecturer this book fills a lacuna in commonwealth caribbean jurisprudence in that there is currently no local or regional text on criminal practice and procedure for too long students and practitioners have had to waste time to wade through english and other text in areas that are not even relevant in order to determine their application to these jurisdictions the book provides a useful reference to clarify what the state of the statutory law is in the caribbean when compared to similar areas in english law and to discuss the relevant statute and common law in specific areas it is a text useful not only for law school students but criminal justice professionals such as lawyers and police officers as well the content of the book includes both the statute law and common law on criminal practice and procedure in most of the relevant jurisdictions which include trinidad tobago guyana barbados jamaica and grenada among others where the law is the same or similar in some jurisdictions this is emphasised in the text so as to avoid unnecessary repetition in discussion attempts will be made to identify specific differences in the laws of different jurisdictions despite their being many commonalities recent developments in these areas are also discussed and the impact of the statutory changes in some countries is assessed rev ed of family law principles policy and practice 2nd ed c1999
